BAD FOR OUR CITY DADS.

Judge Trigg, of the United States Distriet Court, gives them Ten Days to Levy a Tax or go to Jail.

The Facts in the Case-Two Hundred and Sixty Thousand Dollars Still Due T. E. Brown & Co.

Yesterday some commotion was created anicipal circles by the decision of Judge rigg, of the United States circuit court, or e motion for attachment against the memers of the city council for contempt in reug to obey the orders of said court com naming the levy, collection and cayment of tax sufficient to pay the judgments rendered a favor of T. E. Brown and against said city. udge Trigg granted this motion for attach ment for contempt, but gave ten days time in which to allow the members of the city suncil to obey the peremptory writs of man damus heretolore issued. In view of the general interest and importance of the T. E. frown lawsuits and mandamus cases an out ne of the same is here given: In 1873 the nited States circuit court for the western dis rict of Tennessee awarded T. E. Brown igment in the sum of about four hundred d eighty thousand dollars against the city Memphis. This suit was upon the lidity of said Brown's debt and the liability of the city of Memphis for the sum claimed as due him for the Nicolson pavements. The city appealed to the supremount, and this tribunal reduced the judg ent to below four hundred thousand dollars. Pursuant to this decision the United States circuit court, Judge Emmons presiding, enred this judgment in conformity with that shove stated, and execution issued against ord's.

—Rose Turquand, a novel; ten cents a bona being made, a writ of mandamus nish was granted by the United States circuit court, compelling the city of Memphis to show cause why a peremptory mandamus should not issue. The city of Memphis, by its at torney, answered this writ, and the complain-ant, T. E. Brown, demurred thereto. Thereupon, Judge Emmons sustained the demurrer the court rendered a judgment Pursuant to this, peremptory writs of man Horner in Red river, and serious burning of damus were issued to compel the mayor and common council of the city of Memphis to -Two horses belonging to the Adams street | levy a tax, collect the same, and pay the

THE MURDER OF HARVEY.

Sheriff Mauning, of Tunies County. Wanted-Dr. Chapman and One Regan Arrested as Accessory to the Crime.

As the steamer Cheek was landing at Austin, Mississippi, Wednesday night, a party of about twenty-five armed men on the shore in-quired of the boat's officers if Captain M. J. lanning, sheriff of Tunica county, was on oard, and were informed that he was not. From what the officers of the boat could gather the party of men seemed to think that Captain Manning was in some way connected with the murder of a man named J. H. Harvey, near Austin, some weeks ago, Mrs. Manning was at the landing, and wanted to come up the river on the Cheek, but the crowd of armed men would not let her, thinking probably that she wanted to convey information to her husband. Dr. P. E. Chapman, of Austin, who, it is said, married Mrs Manning's neice, was arrested Wednesday for supposed complicity in the murder; and J. M. Regan, a saloon-keeper, of Austin, was shet while resisting arrest for the same alleged of-fense. These facts are gathered from an offi-THE MERCHANTS TAX.
